

ONE KILLED IN I. C. WRECK

Near Fulton Thursday Night
By Rear-End Collision.

Fulton, Ky., March 14.—Local freight and passenger train No. 91 of the Illinois Central railroad was struck in a rear end collision by extra freight train 887, southbound, last night, six miles north of this city, completely demolishing the combination caboose and passenger car on the local.

The dead: John Benedict of Clinton, Ky.

The injured: Ada Summers, a negro woman, legs broken and internal injuries.

A number of other passengers sustained less injuries. Benedict was a prominent young man of Hickman county. The wreck was due to supposed improper flagging, while the local was engaged in switching. The accident occurred on double tracks.

For The Woman That's Fat.

A Detroit physician says that the cheapest and safest mixture a fat woman who wants to get thin can use is 1/2 ounce Marmola (get it in the original 1/2-ounce package), 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3/4 ounces Peppermint Water. The proper amount to take is a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

These ingredients may be obtained from any druggist at small cost, and make a combination that is not only excellent as a fat reducer, being able, it is claimed, to take off a pound a day without causing wrinkles, but is also a splendid help to the system as a whole, regulating the stomach and bowels (where the fat person's troubles begin), and clearing the skin of pimples and blotches. No exercise is required to help the remedy in its work and, best of all, no dieting is necessary while taking it—you can eat what you like.

TOBACCO.

This has been another big week in the tobacco business, with heavy receipts and booming prices. The loose floor sales have probably reached a total of 300,000 pounds for the week.

Prices are well up to past quotations and bidding is lively and strong.

The Orphans' Home.

The West Kentucky Orphans' Home failed to secure the appropriation of $5,000 asked of the General Assembly which has just closed its session. We are throwing no rocks at our solons in consequence, but confess to some disappointment, for as thick and fast as the plums were falling we thought we might catch the delicate bite our mouths were open for. But the fault is in a measure our own. We were late in taking the initiatory steps and did not go to the expense of maintaining a "lobby" in the interest of the bill. We simply placed it before our lawmakers on its merits.

The work of the Home will continue in the future, as in the past, a work of charity and a labor of love and duty. State aid was not a necessity to its life, and its management will be given the chance to demonstrate to the world that on gifts of charity alone a greater child-saving work can be done than we have ever known in the past. Such aid would have widened its scope of operations and enabled it to work more thoroughly its field, but the Home has promptly answered every call and met every demand made upon it, and numerous they have been. A greater work is now being done than ever known in this field before, and there is no apparent abatement in the interest and zeal of its friends, through whose co-operation, under the guidance and blessings of Him who is ever the friend of the needy and distressed, it hopes and will labor to justify the high standard of usefulness and efficiency established by its past record. To this end its manager and his wife will continue to bestow their labors without salary, well knowing that their efforts will be appreciated and their hands upheld by West Kentucky's noble men and women, and will with patience wait the time of vindication and reward.

The Home is located at 319 Cleveland Avenue. Its doors are open wide to dependent children and visitors are ever welcome.

A bright and fine-looking little boy, three years of age, was received today and tomorrow three others are expected to come in.

Some go out to homes every week and new ones come in and take their places in the home. The number on hand varies from five to ten.

WOMAN'S WORK

Ablly Discussed Last Night By Mrs. Desha Breckinridge.

Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, of Lexington, is in the city, upon the invitation of the Woman's Civic Improvement League, and delivered an address last night at the Christian Church. Her subject was Woman's work in connection with civic improvement and educational matters. Mrs. Breckinridge is one of the most brilliant women in Kentucky and her address was listened to with keenest interest by a large crowd. Following her speech, a public reception was tendered her in the Sunday School rooms of the church.

Some Results.

The following acts for the upbuilding of the State are numbered among the fruits of the recent session of the Legislature:

First—State supervision and a measure of State aid in the building of good roads.

Second—The political machine and lobby constituted by the Board of Penitentiary Commissioners is dead and done for. A constitutional amendment for the employment of the convicts in the building of public roads has been passed. The Governor is now invested with the power to appoint the members of the Board of Penitentiary Commissioners, none of whom is to be eligible to succeed himself. Under the wording of the law the Governor is left free to select his appointees from any political party.

Third—For the first time in the history of the State the floors of both houses have been kept free of lobbyists.

Fifth—State inspection for State banks is now required by law.

Sixth—United States Senators will, in future, be elected by popular vote.

Seventh—The compulsory direct primaries law applies not only to all State elections, but to district, county and municipal elections as well.

Eighth—A constitutional amendment has been authorized by the General Assembly giving the people the right, if they so desire, to revise the tax system.

Ninth—The Moody bill, providing for the removal of the peace officer who fails to protect his prisoner, passed the Senate.

Geese Going North.

Glasgow, Ky., March 15.—According to the old adage "when the wild geese go north spring is here," is causing the farmers of this section to rejoice. Tuesday the wild geese passed through Barren county all day. While this is an old citizens claim it is a never-failing one and are already making arrangements to begin their long-delayed work which has been at a standstill on account of the continued bad weather. Several flocks were seen north-bound.

The geese made a raid on a number of wheat fields and practically destroyed them. A number of half-starved ones were found unable to fly.

The case of Johnson & Atkins vs. C. C. Elevator & Warehouse Co. continued.

A. L. Major vs. Florence S. Young Given to jury yesterday.

J. E. Gossett vs. I. C. Railroad Co. Dismissed.

John Alexander vs. the Continent. al Ins. Co. Dismissed.

Geo. Rehman vs. H. M. Dalton Stone Co. stricken from docket.

Edward Moseley vs. L. & N. Railroad Co., etc. on trial yesterday afternoon. Suit for value of a horse that fell into a ditch near the city, during work on the railroad.

The suit of Mrs. C. Nance against the I. C. Railroad Company for $2,000 damages was tried Thursday and resulted in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $900. Mrs. Nance lives at Farmington, Graves county. She alleged that in September, 1910, while alighting from one of defendant's trains in Wilson county, Tenn., where she had gone to visit relatives, the conductor in assisting her off the car, jerked her in such a manner that she fell and sustained internal injuries.

W. J. Webb, of Mayfield and C. H. Bush, of this city, were the attorneys for the plaintiff and Messrs. Downer & Russell represented the defendant company.

Four Middies Promoted.

Washington, March 15.—Four out of six Kentucky midshipmen were nominated as ensigns by the President Tuesday, and at the same time Senator Bradley announced that he will reappoint Jonathan Duff, Reed, of Louisville, to Annapolis.

The four new Kentucky ensigns are David Hunt Stuart, Robert Nicholas Miller, James G. Ware and Timothy A. Parker. Members of their class from Kentucky whose names did not appear in the list of ensigns, are Archibald McGlomon and Henry T. Settle. A recent law provides for raising midshipmen to ensigns as soon as they have graduated.

Young Reed has been previously appointed to Annapolis, but failed in his examinations. Senator Bradley had promised his father, the late J. Duff Reed, that he would give the boy another chance.

The Really "Latest" Styles

---those fresh from Paris---those showing the new draped skirt, for example, which is to be all the rage this spring, are found at their best in the

PICTORIAL REVIEW SPRING FASHION BOOK

It can't help being that way, for the Pictorial Review pattern business is the big part of the American Fashion Company, which supplies advance models, as it has for twenty years past, to the cloak and suit manufacturers, who must have their styles three or four months before the retail selling season opens. This is why Pictorial Review patterns are of all others. You could easily convince yourself, as have thousands of other women, by comparing all the pattern publications. If you do, just notice the numerous Pictorial Review styles for draped skirts, the latest waists, the new cutaway jackets. Our own study of styles leads us to say:

When you select your patterns from the Pictorial Review Spring Fashion Book you do not run the risk of having your dress out of date as soon as it is made.

Pictorial Review Patterns, too, are superior to all others—here are the reasons: In each Pictorial Review pattern is a patented Cutting Guide. This shows how to lay out the pattern and just as scientifically as an expert cutter could do, so as to use the least possible material. You cannot make mistakes; you cannot waste an inch anywhere. With each Pictorial Review pattern is a patented Construction Guide, showing how to produce a perfectly fitting garment with absolute certainty. There can be no home made look about a garment made from Pictorial Review patterns; it looks right, fits right and stays right. These two guides, both FREE, are given only with Pictorial Review patterns.
